

individual choice

social costs

UNINTENDED ACTIONS

cultural expectations

TON OF FUN
isolated

make connections

EXCUSES

crime

reduce inhibitions

enhances

enjoyment

alleviate tension

Our Dance with Alcohol:

a Free public dialogue

exploring complex cultural relationships

a public dialogue on building safer communities

November 8, 2011 – 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Goldcorp Centre for the Arts at SFU
3200 Djavad Mowafaghian Cinema
149 West Hastings Street, Vancouver, BC.

Hosted by the Centre for Addictions Research of BC at the University of Victoria

In conjunction with Issues of Substance, a national biannual conference hosted by the Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse.

With support from:

BC Ministry of Health
City of Vancouver
Vancouver Coastal Health

Featuring:

Dr. Kevin Young, sociologist at the University of Calgary.

Adam Kreek, Olympic gold medalist.

And you. This is a dialogue.

For more info: <http://carbc.ca/ourdancewithalcohol.aspx>

Is it Time to Question Our Assumptions?

JUDGEMENT
excessive binge drinking hilarious